At Speech Pathology Associates, we believe in “getting to the heart of communication”. We have been providing speech and language services to the Orange County community for 25 years. We can proudly say that we have expertise in the treatment of all areas of communication, offering thorough assessments that result in recommendations that fit each client’s individual needs.. In addition, we believe that our collaboration with family, physician, school and agencies has contributed to our success in treating clients.. We offer a wide range of services for infants, toddlers, school-aged children and adults. Our primary goal is to build bridges to successful communication. At Speech Pathology Associates “we speak your language”.
