Faculty

KiDA School was designed with the sole purpose of providing the highest quality education for children with autism. Students receive an intensive, comprehensive education unlike any other. Our daily curriculum provided by licensed professionals includes speech therapy, occupational therapy, behavioral therapy, social skills building, and classroom teaching. We believe that our unwavering dedication to an integrated form of education will lead to more efficient and effective progress for our students.

A team of educators and therapists collaborate to create an individualized curriculum for each student. This curriculum is developed to address each child's goals in speech, learning, fine and gross motor skills, sensory processing, behavior management, and social development.

School Curriculum Includes:

- > Daily Individual Speech Therapy
- > Daily Individual Occupational Therapy
- > Daily Group Occupational Therapy
- > ABA-based classroom instruction
- > Advanced technology in the classroom
- > Sports activities
- > Lessons in the arts

KiDA School is composed of only licensed and experienced therapists and educators that specialize in working with children on the spectrum. Our school staff includes special education teachers, occupational therapists, speech therapists, behavioral therapists, instructors in the arts, and instructional aides.

Therapists and teachers collaborate to reinforce concepts across all disciplines. Instructors utilize the latest technology to enhance students' education, communication, and overall development. Low student-to-instructor ratios ensure each student receives the highest quality education.
